Products include face wash, body wash, moisturizer, night cream, beard oil, beard wash, hair oil, shampoo, hair wax, chafing ease cream, friction defence talc spray and chamols cream. Guests lived it up with the wine complemented by all-vegetarian bites from The Gourmet Kitchen & Studio. Rohit Saxena and Sangita Desai along with Savio John Pereira were there to say hello to the guests, too many to mention.

Prêt set

HOT on the fashion front was ethnic wear brand Jashn that opened its prêt line store in Lokhandwala. Zoya Afroz and Manasi Moghe among others were there to admire the fall/winter collection with prints and embroideries and a dramatic colour palette. The garments were styled in traditional, classic and Indo-Western and fusion styles. Dresses, tunics, kurtis, skirts, salwar kameezes and gowns were on view. Gowns in fabrics like lace, velvet and net caught your eye as did the latest special selection designer wear in bold prints, flighty florals and perky pastels, some highlighted with sequins or delicate embroidery. Looking happy indeed was Rahul Jashnani, MD, Jashn who warmly welcomed all the guests. And the talk was that Jashn has been catering to all fashion needs for over 80 years. Headquartered in Mumbai, Jashn is spread across 44 cities and over 120 selling points across India and the Middle East.

Carry on, doc!

THE good doc, Dr. Sandesh Mayekar, who has brought a smile to so many of celebrities, movie stars, beauty queens and others, was smiling as he celebrated 35 years of his dazzling dentistry. Taj Lands End was packed with his friends and patients who were there to also celebrate the launch of his Marathi book 'Eka Celebrity Dentist Chi Battishi.' Doing the inaugural honours was Babasaheb Purandare, while guest of honour was Raj Thackeray. Known faces caught your eye everywhere at the venue. Making their presence felt were the likes of Amruta Fadnavis, Pankaja Munde, Sonali Kulkarni, Riteish Deshmukh, Tusshar Kapoor, Anu Malik among many more. Many spoke of their association with Dr. Sandesh Mayekar in glowing terms. Celebrating with the good doc was his wife Swati and their daughters Saloni and Shivani. Yes, it was a family and friends gathering with cheerful camaraderie and good food.
